Prague

Capital of the Czech Republic

Prague is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Its uniquely preserved historical centre, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1992, reflects eleven centuries of history. This culturally rich city full of fabulous monuments charms visitors not only with its impressive and diverse architecture and breath-taking views, but also its intimate, romantic atmosphere that is ideal for long walks. Prague is a city of (not just classical) music and art, found here at every step, a city of gardens and parks, and last but not least, a city where the best beer in the world is brewed and savored.

Prague City Tourism

Promoting the city as a tourist destination to both domestic and international audiences, Prague City Tourism provides current and future visitors with the latest information on Prague's attractions, experiences and services through its web site and information centres.

It also provides booking of tickets, guides, tours, and other experiences. As Prague's official tourism marketing organization, it works with the media and travel trade partners both in the Czech Republic and abroad in organizing educational trips, workshops, and presentations.

Prague City Tourism also attends important tourism-related events to spread the reputation of Prague as a world-class destination. Last but not least, it actively promotes congress tourism and collaborates with the film industry in making Prague a location of choice for international productions.

Prague City Tourism is an active member of the following national and international organizations and associations: PCB - Prague Convention Bureau, A.T.I.C. - Association of Tourist Information Centres, ECM - European Cities Marketing, and CEE - Central European Experience.

Prague Convention Bureau

Prague Convention Bureau as the official convention bureau of the city of Prague is a non-profit organization working alongside other Czech tourism authorities.

PCB offers a one-stop-shop service for planners and organisers interested in organising conferences, meetings, seminars, exhibitions or incentive events in Prague.

Our mission is to strengthen positive awareness of the city of Prague as one of Europe's leading conference destinations. Our assistance is free of charge to any national or international organiser of meetings, conventions and incentives. Our knowledgeable team along with other local professionals in the MICE industry are glad to offer you a prompt advice and support in acquiring the perfect components for your event planning and to help you make your event in Prague a memorable and successful one.

The Prague Convention Bureau was established in 2008 for the purpose of promoting Prague internationally as a meeting and convention destination. PCB is working through a network-based partnership, cooperating directly with hotels, conference venues, professional congress organisers and other industry suppliers.

With capacity for 9,300 attendees the Prague Congress Centre is the largest multifunctional event venue in the Czech Republic. Thanks to best-of-class services, beautiful views over Prague and the value and convenience of its location, the PCC ranks among Europe's most popular congress venues.

The Prague Congress Centre (PCC) has 20 halls and 50 meeting rooms with seating capacities from 12 up to 2,764, and spacious exhibition areas covering 13,000 m<sup>2</sup>.

Over 800 four-star hotel rooms are located within two minutes' walk from the PCC, and a further 8,000 rooms are within 15 minutes by public transport.

In the immediate vicinity of the PCC the park on the site of the ancient Vyšehrad fortified settlement is an oasis of tranquillity for congress delegates to unwind, discover a unique historical sight, and enjoy more stunning views over the city and River Vltava.

Prague's Old Town is just five minutes away from the on-site metro station. The PCC is also on Prague's central artery road providing quick access to the Czech and European motorway networks. The travel time to Prague's international airport is approx. 30 minutes.

The PCC has hosted numerous prestigious association congresses, corporate events and also international summits including NATO, the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and the European Union.
