Prague

Capital of the Czech Republic

Prague is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Its uniquely preserved historical centre, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1992, reflects eleven centuries of history. This culturally rich city full of fabulous monuments charms visitors not only with its impressive and diverse architecture and breath-taking views, but also its intimate, romantic atmosphere that is ideal for long walks. Prague is a city of (not just classical) music and art, found here at every step, a city of gardens and parks, and last but not least, a city where the best beer in the world is brewed and savored.

Prague Convention Bureau

Prague Convention Bureau as the official convention bureau of the city of Prague is a non-profit organization working alongside other Czech tourism authorities.

PCB offers a one-stop-shop service for planners and organisers interested in organising conferences, meetings, seminars, exhibitions or incentive events in Prague.

Our mission is to strengthen positive awareness of the city of Prague as one of Europe's leading conference destinations. Our assistance is free of charge to any national or international organiser of meetings, conventions and incentives. Our knowledgeable team along with other local professionals in the MICE industry are glad to offer you a prompt advice and support in acquiring the perfect components for your event planning and to help you make your event in Prague a memorable and successful one.

The Prague Convention Bureau was established in 2008 for the purpose of promoting Prague internationally as a meeting and convention destination. PCB is working through a network-based partnership, cooperating directly with hotels, conference venues, professional congress organisers and other industry suppliers.
